Conditions at Peking Show up Well
For the American and Japanese Administrators.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The China question has virtually reached the money point. The amount of indemnity to be paid will probably require many weeks of diplomatic consultation. Sir Robert Hart knows better than anybody else what can be paid by the Chinese Government without the complete surrender of her taxing and revenue resources to Europe, but bankers in all the capitals will prefer to have a great loan undertaken by the powers themselves and full financial control established by an international commission for the payments of interest and sinking fund service.

FRENCH MEET CHINESE.
PEKING, Dec. 25.—The French report encountering 25,000 Chinese and capturing five flags and a number of guns and inflicting a great loss upon the Chinese thirty-five miles south of here. The report is generally discredited. According to the rumor, the French did not suffer any losses themselves. It is believed, however, that the French probably met a roving band, which was dispersed, a number of the Chinese being butchered. Li Hung Chang says that he is satisfied that the story is false.

Rev. Mr. Kelly, a Presbyterian missionary, has reported to Minister Conger of the burning by Boxers of nineteen Catholic Christians. He says, however, that his information has been derived entirely from Chinese sources. The Japanese, who have jurisdiction over the territory thirty miles north in which it is alleged the outrage occurred, will investigate the report.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Peking, dated December 25, says the detachment of French troops commanded by General BailLOUD were recently attacked by Chinese regulars and Boxers at T'ieh Tchoan, south of Pao Ting Fu. The punitive expedition took the village after a lively combat. Many cannon and a quantity of provisions and ammunition were secured. On account of the hostile attitude of the population General BailLOUD burned the village and destroyed those villages in the neighborhood. The Chinese loss was 1,600 (?) men. General BailLOUD's force sustained no loss. Christian Chinese families have been maltreated by the Chinese regulars.

BRITISH WILL STAY.
LONDON, Dec. 26.—The Foreign Office informed a representative of the Associated Press today that there is no truth in the Pall Mall Gazette despatch which says there has been a question of the British seceding from the allied command owing to the activity of the Germans in the district under British protection.

CONDITIONS AT PEKING.
LONDON, Dec. 26.—In the course of a review published in the Morning Post today of the conditions existing at Peking, H. J. Whigham, a well known newspaper correspondent, says there are "at least 100,000 Chinese and 100,000 foreigners pursuing their ordinary avocations in the American quarter. The markets are in full blast. He adds that the American and Japanese quarters are in all respects the best managed and most comfortable in the city. The Americans to handle a subject which they have not developed elsewhere to proper advantage."

Continuing, Mr. Willingham says: "The enormous size of the city is policed by exactly one company of infantry and a few mounted men under a provost marshal. If only the hard-headed soldiers of the provost marshal type had been given a free hand in the Philippines the task of managing the city would have been made so simple. If the Japanese have come out of the muddle with flying colors they at least have the Americans close behind. It was worth sending an expedition of 100,000 men to go and bring a city of 1,000,000 back to the Americans. The scheme of municipal government could not be bettered by the British, who have learned the business experience in every quarter of the globe. For the point of contrast is only one: the point of contrast is the attitude of a Chinese city dividing the United States and Germany. The American side of the street is simply Peking in ordinary garb of peace, minus its stinging smells. The opposite side is a place of disease and death. The people come to the American side for meat and vegetables, and it is whispered that the country people are sometimes robbed as they bring in the produce except where the gates are British. The American Japanese think that a few markets in the heart of town controlled by these nations are the best."

THE POWERS AND CHINA.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—A cablegram received at the State Department from United States Minister Compton at Peking on the 24th inst. states that the situation between the diplomatic representatives and Prince Ching took place on the 24th. Ching presented the credentials of himself and Li Hsing Chang, who were unable to appear in person to the diplomatic representatives, who handed to him the international note. The officials of the State Department are unwilling to venture a guess as to the result of the conference assumed by the Chinese government in consideration of the note. The last article of the note notified the Chinese government that the occupation of Peking and Tientsin by the Japanese-Chinese government has complied with the terms of the note. It may be stated, however, that the United States is not bound or affected by the conditions. Our position from a military point of view has been terminated.

The Supreme Bench Lays Down Law
in Decision in the Well-known Case.

After running the gamut of the circuit and Supreme Courts and being catapulted to a ruling that, in effect, Merrett, of this city, was wrong, his suit against the Newark First Guaranty Company, the Supreme Court yesterday rendering a decision in his favor, and sustaining the judgment of the Circuit Court. In so, Merrett receives judgments against the company for a little over $200, to which is added interest. The decision was written by Justice Hughes, Chief Justice Brandeis, and former Judge Evans, in the presence of Justice Sutherland and Chief Justice.

According to the trial copy of the survey, Captain Cluney was accused of having sold things in regard to the case prejudicial to the company. It was claimed in that made statements that he had been disloyal to him. Although a local newspaper, every part of the evidence, but the court said that Captain Cluney had been prejudiced and was entitled to sit on the case. There were two policies involved. One was for $250,000 and the other was for $100,000. The Federal Court jury returned a verdict against the defendant company for the full amount of the house policy claimed amounting to $250,000. On counts three, the verdict was for $250,000. The Federal Court jury was taken to the Supreme Court on exceptions and errors, sixty-nine in all.

The latitude allowed to counsel in the cross-examination of witnesses is largely in the discretion of the trial court, and it is not a proper course to reversal, unless such discretion has been unreasonably abused.

Where proofs of loss are prepared in the office and under the advice, aid and instruction of the company's authorized agent, the company thereby waives the right to object in defer-

Evidence of previous fires in which the plaintiff had suffered loss and collected insurance, not admissible, unless the previous fires were a part of the system of frauds of which the fire in question was a part.

An instruction asked by the defendant and modified by the court was given in the following language: "If you find that the insured did not truthfully state his interest in the property covered by either of the policies, as he stated that he owned property while in fact belonged to his wife, and did so deliberately, knowing the statements were untrue, then you should find that the insured was guilty of fraud."

The trial of the cause commenced on Tuesday and closed Saturday evening on Friday morning defendants' ages and attorney learned of certain criminal misconduct of one of the jurors tioning, on the part of the jury, strong bias and prejudice against insurance companies. No notice of this fact was brought to the attention of the court, and the trial continued in secret without objection. Held, the defendant did not use proper diligence to entitle it to make the alleged misconduct of the jury the basis of motion for a new trial, that by stipendium and fraction it waived such right, any existed.

CITIZENSHIP CONTD 34.

Judge Esten Has Raised the Bar for Naturalization

Citizenship has become more expensive since the opening of the new entry bureau. Judge Bates has decided the case with the glorious prospect of the next 100 years the becoming a citizen of the United States should have some value. Hereafter all foreigners who expect a legation in Uncle Sam will be required to pay a fee.

Formerly citizens were made in the United States District Court for a fee and a 19-cent stamp. This was a fee, especially when compared to what the Territorial courts were charging. The local courts charged a man $1 for the privilege. The additional $1 fee is made for the purpose of increasing the revenues of the court.

IS CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Attorney J. A. Magoon Is Accused.

FOUR DAUGHTERS SUE

Say He Deceived Their Mother Into Signing a Deed to Land on Maui.

J. A. Magoon is being sued by four daughters of a dead woman who accuse him of obtaining by fraudulent representation a piece of land. Magoon, nine years ago, was made administrator of the estate of Alina, a Chinese merchant of Honolulu, the father of two of the plaintiffs, Aleka Alina and Ah Su Alina, and the husband of Melema, a native Hawaiian who had two other daughters, Soile Pohaku and Loke Pohaku, by a Hawaiian husband.

When Alina died Magoon was made administrator of his estate, and held the confidence of Melema till her death. During those years it is said he made no accounting of his trust. The children allege he induced their mother to deed land on Maui for $40 to him which is now worth $750, and that the deed was obtained through Melema's being deceived and deluded by Magoon. The children want the deed made void by the court and demand a quit claim deed for Magoon. W. W. Thayer is attorney for the plaintiffs. Attorney Magoon asked the privilege of making a statement to be published in the Advertiser with the above, which privilege was freely granted. Up to the hour of going to press Mr. Magoon's statement had not been received.

In full, the petition in the suit is as follows:

First—That your petitioners, Soile Pohaku and Loke Pohaku, are residents of Honolulu, island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, and are the daughters of one Melema, alias Melema, a Hawaiian woman, and one Pohaku Alukio, a Hawaiian man, the latter of whom died in Honolulu, in the year

Second—That your petitioners, Aleka Alina and Ah Su Alina, are residents of Honolulu, island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, and are the daughters of the aforementioned Melema and one Alina, a Chinese merchant of Honolulu, who died in the city of Honolulu on October 25th, A. D. 1888.

Third—That the said Melema died intestate in the City of Honolulu on the day of —, A. D. 1886, leaving your petitioners as his sole heirs.

Fourth—That the said Alina left a will which was duly admitted to probate by the Supreme Court of the Kingdom of Hawaii on the 25th day of November, A. D. 1888, and that by the terms of the said will the said Alina appointed one Hung Poi as executor of said will.

Fifth—That objection having been made by certain of the legatees under the said will to the appointment of the said Hung Poi as executor of said will, and the said Hung Poi having filed his renunciation of said office, J. A. Magoon, defendant herein, was by the said Supreme Court duly appointed as administrator of the estate of the said Alina with the will annexed.

Sixth—That thereafter, to wit, on the 7th day of December, A. D. 1888, the said J. A. Magoon duly qualified as administrator of the said estate of the said Alina with the will annexed, and filed a bond in the sum of $250 for the due and faithful performance of the duties of his office as said administrator.

Seventh—That immediately following his appointment as said administrator of the said J. A. Magoon took entire charge of the affairs of the estate of the said Alina and has been since and is plotting as said administrator and still has charge of said affairs.

Eighth—That owing to the appointment of the said J. A. Magoon as administrator of said estate the said Melema, mother of your petitioners, who was a Hawaiian woman of little knowledge of the English language and entirely without business capacity or worldly knowledge, reposed in the said J. A. Magoon, who is an attorney at law of exceptional intelligence and business ability, utmost trust and confidence, and left her affairs entirely in his hands, not asking nor demanding from him any accounting whatsoever of any of his transactions with reference to her property.

Ninth—That said relation of trust and confidence existing between the said J. A. Magoon and the said Melema continued from the time of the death of the said Alina, her husband, until the time of the death of the said Melema, or during a period of over nine years, and that during all said period of said relation of trust and confidence the said J. A. Magoon of his transactions as said administrator, nor was he ever discharged by a court of competent jurisdiction or by any court whatever of his responsibility as such administrator, nor has he yet been so discharged.

Tenth—That the said Melema was the owner of certain property on the island of Maui, consisting of ten and one-half acres of land more or less, situated in the district of Kula, No. 574, Kilauea No. 574, and located at Kilauea, Kilauea, island of Maui, Territory of Hawaii, said property being her separate property owned by her by virtue of a deed to her in fee simple from one Kilauea, Kilauea, Kilauea, Kilauea, dated the 25th day of September, A. D. 1886, and recorded in Book 61, page 25, in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances of the Hawaiian Islands. In the Judiciary Building, in the City of Honolulu.

Eleventh—That on a certain date during the aforesaid period of administration, to wit, the 1st day of November, A. D. 1888, and while said relation of trust and confidence still existed, the said J. A. Magoon, taking advantage of said confidential relation existing between himself as the said administrator and the said Melema, did by fraudulent and false representations to the said Melema induce and persuade the said Melema to make to him an absolute deed to the said above described property expressed to be for the consideration of the sum of forty dollars ($40) which said deed is recorded in Book 33, page 46, in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances of the Hawaiian Islands. KALAKAUA'S OLD HOME IS SOLD

Japanese Buys House Where Royalty Once Made Merry.

One by one the homes—once they were called palaces—of the former kings, queens, princesses and princes of Hawaii, are being disposed of under the auctioneer's hammer; in many cases to purchasers whom these royal guests would not have deigned to greet with even so much as a glance when they were clothed with the majesty of their royal prerogatives.

Yesterday as the noon whistles were sounding a once royal residence was knocked down by auctioneer Morgan to a Japanese to whom sentiment in matters pertaining to faded royalty, or relic-worshipping were foreign.

During the palmy days of his reign as king the place was used as a resting place. It was near his bathhouse, and at that time was somewhat secluded and apart from the busy portion of the town. In one part were houses for his many retainers, and many were given there. It was prettily hedged in with plants.

Upon his death, Queen Kapiolani used the place for her town residence, and until all health compelled her to leave for her Waikiki residence, where she died, Honolulu was deeded to the two princes, and they resided there until their death, when they took up their residence at Waikiki. Since then the old house has gone into rapid decay.

THE PERRY MONUMENT

Japan Honoring Memory of Commodore.

SITE HAS BEEN CHOSEN

Standard Oil Company Finds a Big Rival-Threatened Rising in Korea.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 20.—A stone monument to the N. Y. S. S. Perry, who died on Monday, having on board Admiral and Mrs. Boardman, Mr. Oami Kawai, Mr. Seldmore, United States duty consul-general, Mr. H. K. Y. Yokohama branch, and eight Japanese gentlemen from Tokyo, who were to proceed to Kurushima to select the site of the proposed Perry monument. The party reached their destination about noon and were cordially welcomed by the local people. The visitors were entertained at lunch at Mr. Oami's. Three old men, who have been living in the district since the arrival of Commodore Perry, were present. One of them is named Hirai Sukeshichi, and he is aged 89. The local fishermen gave a fishing exhibition for the visitors' amusement. Afterwards the party chose a site for the proposed monument and erected a post to mark the spot where Commodore Perry landed. Admiral and Mrs. Boardman planted a young pine tree to commemorate the occasion. An address was delivered by Mr. Suzuki, M. P. representing Uraga district. The Admiral and Mr. Oami replied. After the party had been photographed they paid a visit of inspection to the Uraga dock yard. In the club house belonging to the yard a collation was served and shortly after 5 p. m. the party returned to Yokohama by launch.

BIG PETROLEUM SCHEME.

With regard to the proposed petroleum scheme in Hokkaido province in rivalry with the Standard Oil Company, we learn from the vernacular press that Mr. Asano Seichiro, President of the Tokyo Kisen Kaisha, whose connection with Messrs. Samuel Samuel & Co. is well known, is making efforts to bring about the consummation of the scheme. Negotiations are proceeding to amalgamate the Nippon, the Zoro and the Takarada Petroleum Companies, which are the most influential of the existing concerns, and to establish a new company with a capital of two million yen, equal to that of the Standard Oil Company. There is no doubt that Mr. Asano is backed up by Messrs. Samuel Samuel & Co. in his enterprise. If the new scheme succeeds the kerosene industry in the Hokkaido province will practically be competed for by the two foreign concerns referred to.

In this connection it may be mentioned that the Standard Oil Company, according to Japanese papers, is also devoting its attention to the promising nature of the kerosene industry in Hokkaido. Recently it dispatched an engineer, Mr. Mudge, to Ishikari province to make a survey of the mines there. As the export has reported favorably, negotiations have now been opened with the owners of the mines for their purchase. In case of the property changing ownership, mining will be commenced next year as soon as the thaw sets in.

THREATENED RISING IN KOREA.

About three hundred Japanese residents in Chinnampo, Korea, have sent a deputation to Tokyo and applied to the Foreign Office for the despatch of troops, within the limits prescribed by the Russo-Japanese convention, to the Korean port for the protection of the Japanese residents, as there are signs of trouble brewing among the natives.

ARREST A REVENUE OFFICIAL.

A report having reached the Yokohama Revenue Office that Kato Shunmei, a rich sake brewer at Onawa-machi, Kanagawa, had brewed a quantity of sake without obtaining official license, an official named Owada was sent to the brewer's on Thursday afternoon. As the result of the examination he found several hundred koku of sake supposed to have been illicitly brewed, and he proceeded to put a seal on the vats containing the contraband liquor. At this stage of the proceedings the inmates became suspicious that he was a bogus official and sent a fraud. He was forcibly carried into one of the inner godowns by members of the establishment, where he was locked up. Meanwhile, a report having been made to the police, they arrived upon the scene and in the examination that followed it was proved beyond all doubt that the prisoner was a genuine revenue official sent to discharge his duties. Sake was at once put on the contraband goods and at the same time the men who confined the official were arrested charged with obstructing an official in the performance of his duties.

RESIGNATION OF KATSURA.

The resignation of Viscount General Katsura, Minister of War, which was tendered some time ago on the plea of ill-health, is to be accepted after all. The resignation has long remained in the hands of the Premier pending the selection of a successor to the War Office. General Terauchi, vice chief of the staff board, and General Kodama, governor-general of Formosa, were spoken of as the probable successors. It now appears that a decision has been arrived at in favor of the latter, who is to hold the portfolio of the War Office in addition to his present post for the time being. General Kodama has been telegraphed for and is expected to arrive in Tokyo about the 30th inst. It is unprecedented that a Cabinet Minister should simultaneously hold the post of governor-general of Formosa, but this position will be only temporary, and as soon as a suitable successor is

NEW SHIP HOODOOED

Death and Suicide on Prinzess Irene.

EVENTFUL MAIDEN TRIP

Chief Officer Dies From Injury by Flower Breaking and Steward Drowns Himself.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 20.—The North German Lloyd steamer Prinzess Irene, which is making her maiden trip to the East, and which is due to arrive in Yokohama tomorrow, has had a somewhat eventful voyage. The ship, as the Mail states, left the harbor of the North German Lloyd at Hamburg on the 15th of November, about 1 o'clock, while superintending the unloading of the cargo on her arrival in Yokohama harbor, the chief officer, Mr. Holmstrom, was knocked down by the anchor which swung down by the stern, and he died of his injuries. The ship's right leg was badly lacerated, the muscles and arteries being so torn that the unfortunate died soon after a considerable amount of blood had been lost. The ship's surgeon, Mr. Holmstrom, was severely injured, and in addition to the chief officer, there were two medical officers on board on their way to China. To them it was reported at once that the accident was a serious one. In order that the patient should receive every possible chance of recovering, after he had been rendered, he was transported to the hospital in Yokohama, where the leg was amputated above the knee. Relatively speaking, a considerable time had elapsed between the moment of the accident and the completion of the operation, three or four hours, and Mr. Holmstrom had suffered so much from the shock that he never rallied, and finally succumbed. His remains were buried later in the day, the funeral being attended by Captain Weitz, many of the passengers, the ship's band and as many of the crew as could be spared, as well as a detachment of German soldiers on their way to China. The deceased officer, who was very popular on board, was only thirty-eight years of age, and was making his last voyage as chief officer, previous to taking up the command of one of the company's steamers. He leaves a widow and two children to mourn his untimely death. The incident cast a deep gloom over the passengers, and Captain Weitz felt very keenly the loss of such an able and trustworthy officer. Mr. Holmstrom was an officer in the German naval reserve.

Two days out from Colombo, in the Bay of Bengal, another incident occurred to deepen the gloom of the passengers. The band had just finished playing, and the passengers were about to sit down to the midday meal, when one of the stewards jumped overboard from the after part of the steamer. Several of the passengers witnessed the affair, and one young fellow, a Dane, with great presence of mind, dropped a lifebuoy a few yards from the boat, and was only restrained from jumping overboard to his rescue by representations that the man was insane, and his gallantry might only result in the loss of another life. At the time the steamer was travelling at the rate of about sixteen knots per hour, and the man and the three life buoys were rapidly left astern. The steamer was promptly turned round, and a boat was launched, but no trace of the unfortunate man was found. For a few minutes after jumping overboard, he was seen to float, and had he been so disposed, he could easily have reached the first buoy thrown to him. But he made no attempt to do so, and threw up his hands and disappeared. The case was one of deliberate and premeditated suicide. On the previous night he had complained of being tired of the work on board, and spoke of his desire to be finished with it all. He was from twenty to twenty-five years of age, of a cheery disposition rather than otherwise, and was well liked by the passengers, with whom he came in contact. He was a capable musician, and played the cello in the band.

It may be mentioned that the Prinzess Irene is a sister ship of the well known Koenig Albert, and also has been built by the Vulkan Works at Bremen, near Rottlin. She has accommodations for 300 passengers of first class, 100 of second class, and she can take up to 200 passengers of the third class. The crew numbers 200 men, all told. Provided with twin-screws and powerful double engines, the vessel is expected to attain a speed of fifteen knots, and as she has a side-wheel on each side, her stability also will be very satisfactory, so she will prove a first-rate passenger boat.

Negro Laborers Arrive.

A happy band of negroes arrived on the Zealandia yesterday to work on one of the sugar plantations of these islands. There are twenty-one of them in all, including about six women, and they came direct from Tennessee. In charge of Colonel W. O. Bean, Colonel Bean engaged them for Brewer & Company and they are brought here as an experiment. If the experiment proves a success, Colonel Bean says that he can bring 10,000 negroes here.

CHANGES ON HOTEL STREET PLANNED BY THE DEPARTMENT.

The Public Works department is at present negotiating to have the Hotel street building line put back from the Hotel building to Union street to conform with the line recently established from the Hotel building to Akaba street. If this is done negotiations will be begun to lay off a portion of the frontage now occupied by King Brothers and Stein's as far as the Hotel-Smith building. The increasing traffic on Hotel street which has been apparent during the last eight or nine months makes the widening of the current street imperative.

The section between Akaba and Richards street, which is a tortuous thoroughfare, is badly in need of widening. The Rapid Transit railway line will be laid along the present length of Hotel street if this is done and not make a detour by way of Akaba street. The company has about completed negotiations with property owners to lay the line through from Pringle Lane to Akaba street, and the long detour will be unnecessary.

RESIGNATION OF KATSURA.

The resignation of Viscount General Katsura, Minister of War, which was tendered some time ago on the plea of ill-health, is to be accepted after all. The resignation has long remained in the hands of the Premier pending the selection of a successor to the War Office. General Terauchi, vice chief of the staff board, and General Kodama, governor-general of Formosa, were spoken of as the probable successors. It now appears that a decision has been arrived at in favor of the latter, who is to hold the portfolio of the War Office in addition to his present post for the time being. General Kodama has been telegraphed for and is expected to arrive in Tokyo about the 30th inst. It is unprecedented that a Cabinet Minister should simultaneously hold the post of governor-general of Formosa, but this position will be only temporary, and as soon as a suitable successor is

POTTER TALKS OF PARIS

Secretary of the Island Commission Speaks of Creditable Display.

Major G. C. Potter, secretary of the Hawaiian Commission to the Paris Exposition, who returned to this city on the Rio last week, brings most favorable reports as to the way the exhibition from the islands was received, especially the educational department of the display, which attracted wide interest and carried away a gold medal and a grand prize diploma.

Potter said yesterday: "You know we were delayed by the bubonic plague at the beginning, as we could not get away from here with the exhibit until that matter was settled, and whereas we should have been in Paris by the middle of April, we did not arrive there until the latter part of June, by which time a great many of the prizes had been awarded. Quite by accident I found out that the reports of the jurors had not been sent in on either sugar or educational exhibits, and I hastened to get the Hawaiian displays arranged."

"The result was that Hawaiian sugar carried away a gold medal, and the primary educational department was awarded one of the grand prize diplomas, which only twelve were given out in the United States, and with a mark of twenty-two credits, twenty-five credits being perfect. The exhibit of the Kamehameha Manual and Training School, carried away a gold medal."

"This speaks very highly for the progress of the islands, and I am sure that our display would have won recognition in many other departments had we not been delayed in getting them there until too late a date for competition."

"As it was the entire exhibit attracted a great deal of attention and the educational department was a subject of special attention by visiting professors and educational people from all parts of the world. The educational display consisted of sample work of the schools neatly bound, and many excellent photographs of the children at work, of the school buildings and other things of educational interest. Our islands did not, like the Polynesian group, attempt to portray pictures of native life, but rather endeavored to show the progress and development in educational matters. We had excellent photographs showing the various classes of children we have to deal with, Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese, etc., and these photographs illustrated some of the difficulties we have to contend with in teaching the English language to children who are unfamiliar with it."

"Miss Smith, the American juror of the board, was very much pleased and interested, and the juror from France was so delighted with the results of our methods that she requested copies of the work to be sent to her for the French Minister of Public Instruction. Her work was of especial interest to both the United States and France on account of the colonial problem. France has Madagascar to educate and the United States will soon be confronted with the educational problem in Porto Rico and Cuba, and in the Philippines."

"The German University of Leipzig were very anxious to get portions of the exhibit, and was also the University of Bern, Switzerland, and other colleges. But the matter was given away and donated to the Field Columbian Museum of Chicago and the Philadelphia Commercial Museum."

"A feature of the educational exhibit that aroused special interest and commendation was a bound book of drawings done by school children of the islands, entitled 'Jack and the Beanstalk.' The story of Jack and the Beanstalk had been told to the children and they had been put at the task of depicting their ideas of Jack's mother's cow, the beanstalk, Jack built, Jack planting the beans, the growth of the beanstalk, the castle at the top, etc. The result was most unique, and the little book was in much demand. W. W. Foote, the California Commissioner, wanted it badly for a personal souvenir, and we had to guard the little book very carefully from all kinds of designs. We managed to bring it back, however, and it will remain in Hawaii."

"The school song books written and arranged by Mrs. Frear and Mrs. Turner, with their pretty stories of the caterpillar, the little birds of the islands, etc., were also in much demand and copies were ordered for all parts of the world. The photos of the Kamehameha Manual building and the work being done there attracted special interest. The exhibit sent by St. Anthony's College of Wakefield was very creditable, especially its plaster maps and art displays."

"The Hawaiian Islands' part in the big exposition, though very small by comparison, by reason of its quality, attracted a remarkable share of the attention. The display of our islands was incomparably superior to that of other isolated groups, and but for the delay in the arrangements, I think Hawaii would have made even a better record in the awards. The little book entitled 'The Hawaiian Islands,' which was prepared specially by the Department of Foreign Affairs for the Exposition, was in great demand, and the progress and development of the 'Paradise of the Pacific' was certainly made most creditably manifest."

Mrs. Susan H. Edmonds, of Mrs. Susan H. Edmonds.

"A year ago last February I was taken with rheumatism. My hands swelled, and I suffered from soreness in the joints of my arms and limbs. At my age this was quite a serious matter, and I employed two doctors, but they did not cure me. One day my son found a little book at the door which contained a statement by a minister who formerly preached here, and was known to be a man of great truth and honesty. Over his signature he stated that he had been cured of rheumatism by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I told my doctor if he was willing I would try the pills myself. The minister whose statement I had read was known to the doctor, and the latter did not object, so I tried the pills. I soon began to see an improvement. The swelling went down and there was less soreness. I continued the use of the pills, in all seven boxes, and was entirely cured. If I am ever troubled with the rheumatism again I shall surely take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and advise others to do so who are afflicted with this disease."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People expel impurities from the blood, and supply the material for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues. It has performed hundreds of almost miraculous cures in severe cases of Rheumatism, many times after doctors had given up hope.

BONES TELL A TALE OF LOVE

A Pair Who Died Rather Than Part.

STORY OF A LEPER AND HIS FIANCEE

Honolulu Woman Says That the Skeleton is That of Her Son.

NOT very long ago there was published in the Advertiser a story of the discovery of two human skeletons in a quarry back of the Lanialilo Home on the mountain side. Many people read the story with interest which is usually attached to such subjects, but there was one person in Honolulu who read it with doubly heartache and to whom the facts were as a revelation from the dead.

The printed story answered a question which had been in the mind of one reader for over two years. A mother, who, two years ago, had been parted from her son and who had wondered all the many days what had become of him, saw in the columns of this paper the answer to the question which had which had so long troubled her, day so long troubled her, day and night—"What became of my boy?"

Mrs. Kinimaka, Kamehameha Kinimaka, who lives in this city, upon reading of the finding of the two skeletons, exclaimed: "Aue, aue! they are the skeletons of my boy and the girl he loved."

Then the unhappy woman gave way to her grief and let her mind wander back to the days when she was wont to have her boy with her, to love and be proud of.

Mrs. Kinimaka told Captain Parker of the police department that she was sure one of the skeletons was that of her boy and that the other was without doubt all that was left of the girl he had loved and who had loved him.

In the last year there have only two people among the natives who have been missed. Those two were the son of Mrs. Kinimaka and the girl who loved him well enough to die with him rather than live without him.

Kewemahi was the name of the young man who disappeared two years ago with the girl. The girl's name is not ascertainable at the present time.

Kewemahi was found to be a leper and was taken to the Kalahele receiving station, where he was to remain until he was sent to the settlement on Molokai. He had a sweetheart, one whom he had known for a long time and who loved him with the same strong affection which he had for her. She was surprised and shocked when she found he had been declared a leper, but still faithful in her love, she thought none the less of him and longed to be with him.

She wanted to be sent to the settlement on Molokai with him and prayed the Board of Health for permission to go to the settlement. But the Board of Health would not allow this. The youth was so discouraged with life when he found that he was to be parted from the one he loved forever, that he attempted to take his own life by cutting his throat. But he did not die and some time afterwards recovered from his terrible wound, in the hospital. When he was well again he made his escape from the Kalahele receiving station, and evidently having made arrangements with his sweetheart, met her and the two fled to the mountains together, where it is supposed that they killed themselves, preferring to die in each other's arms to existing without each other's company and affection.

The skeletons recently found were those of a man and of a woman; they were found lying near to each other, face to face.

This man and this woman were the only two natives who have been missed from the community during the last two years. The skeletons were found not far from where the lovers were last seen. The mother of the young man believes the male skeleton to be that of her son. In fact all the indications point to one conclusion and that is that the two skeletons are all that remain of the young leper who escaped from the law two years ago and whose sweetheart loved him too well to live without him. The records of the Kalahele receiving station and the Board of Health bear out many parts of the above story, while others are vouched for by those well acquainted with the facts.

A stranger romance has not been brought to light in this city for a long time. It is said that several such incidents, however, have occurred in these islands in connection with the segregation of lepers.

Voyage to Salvador.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—The small tug El Salvador yesterday started on the long voyage to Salvador. She will be used for towing lighters to and from the shore in connection with the coffee industry. The El Salvador is only a tug of about twenty tons, and was built by John Twigg & Sons. She is commanded by Captain Taylor, and carries a crew of six men. She will tow down to Southern America a lighter. The habits of the waterfront claim that the voyage of the El Salvador is a perilous one for so small a craft.
